Mr Pitker was at first "Agent" for the Settlement of Madras, which was under the jurisdiction of the Presidency of Bantam in Java, from its foundation in 1639 till it was itself created a Presidency in 1653 In 1668 the Settlements in Bengal were subordinated to Madras and so remained to 1681

Three months after his arrival with a Commission to supersede Sir F Winter, Mr Foxcroft was, on a charge of disloyalty, put into confinement by Sir F Winter, who resumed office and retained it till the 22nd August 1668, when Mr Foxcroft was released and reinstated by the Commissioners from England

By the Company's Commission, dated 14th November 1681, received 17th July 1682, the Bengal Agency was made a Government "without any subordination to Fort St George

Mr Yale also acted during Mr Gyfford's absence in Bengal from 9th August 1684 to 28th January 1685

Madras having been captured by the French on the 10th September 1746, the government of the Settlement devolved on Mr John Hinde, the Deputy Governor of Fort St David

Mr Hinde died at Fort St David on the 14th April 1747 previous to the receipt of the Court of Directors' Despatch of 24th January 1747, creating Fort St David the Head Settlement, and appointing Mr Hinde President and Governor

The Court's Despatch ordering Mr Floyer's dismissal from the service was received at Fort St David on the 6th July 1750

The seat of Government was re-established at Madras on the 5th April 1752, four years after its restoration to the English by the treaty of Aix-la Chapelle.

Governor for second time By order of Mr George Stratton and the majority of Council was placed under arrest and detained at St Thomas Mount on the 24th August 1776 He was allowed to return to the Madras Garden House on the 28th April for change of air and died there on 10th May 1777.

Acting Governor second time Suspended by the Governor General and Council under section IX of the Regulating Act.

Embarked for the Northern Ports and Bengal on the 4th June 1785, and resigned from Vizagapatam by letter a The first four Governors held Bombay for the Crown The Island was handed over to the Company on the 23rd September 1668 For the next nineteen years (1668-1687), except for occasional visits, and during three years (1672-1675) of Governor Aungier's rule, the Governors of Bombay spent almost the whole of their time in Surat, of whose factory they were Presidents During this time Bombay was administered by an officer styled Deputy Governor The transfer, in 1687, of the head quarters of the Company's power to Bombay to a great extent did away with the need of a Deputy Governor But in spite of the change the title continued for many years to be borne by the second Member of Council It would seem to have fallen into disuse some time between 1720 and 1730

b Child was Governor and General with his head quarters in Bombay, where he moved from Surat on the 2nd May 1687, and where he died on the 4th February 1690 In the year 1683 Bombay was the scene of a revolt against the Company's authority The head of the rebellion was Captain Richard Keigwin, he third Member of Council. Placing the Deputy Governor under arrest, Keigwin ruled Bombay in the King's name from the 27th December 1683 to the 19th November 1684, when on promise of pardon he handed over the Island to Admiral Sir Thomas Grantham

Under Gayer, Waite, and Aislabie—that is from 1694 to 1715—Bombay Governors held the title of General. During the last three years (1701-1704) of his nominal command Gayer was in confinement in Surat.

d Proceeded to Madras on duty in August 1793, and thence joined the Council of the Governor General as Commander-in-Chief in India on the 28th October 1793.
